The speaker will present experiences in deploying quiz assignments and address specific, practical problems such as localisation, language and code-page specifics, and import from other tools and will present feedback from quiz participants and will give conclusions and recommendations.