

This presentation describes the state and trends in the telecommunication infrastructure and the implementation of telecommunication technologies in education in Russia. The presentation is mainly devoted to the largest university telecommunication network, RUNNet.