Athens is the Access Management System (AMS) used throughout the UK in the Higher Education and Health sectors providing access to 263 resources for users from 800 organisations. We discuss how the current Athens framework can act as a Shibboleth origin, and can interoperate with Shibboleth targets.