The presentation will focus on the solutions to the authentication, authorisation and accounting (AAA) problems in a distributed multimedia content delivery system. It will summarise the effects of work, which has been conducted in PSNC for over a year to develop an efficient and reliable multimedia distribution middleware platform.