

The speaker will present an overview of the activities required in the creation of a new technical, infrastructural and organisational framework for the introduction of multimedia services and applications within Croatian academic and research community. By identifying, analysing and designing (through various projects) elements of such a multimedia infrastructure, we create firm foundations for the introduction and implementation of multimedia services within both CARNet and entire community.