The speaker will present the IP Telephony Cookbook Project, funded by and with the help of TERENA, with recommendations for setting up IP telephony solutions and providing information about protocols and interoperability of equipment. The project is started on 1st of April and will last 11 months.