Sören Auer was managing director of adVIS GmbH, a Dresden-based Internet and IT service provider. Currently he is writing a PhD thesis about the application of artificial intelligence knowledge representation mechanisms in *e*Business and *e*Learning at the computer science department of the University of Leipzig. <auer@informatik.uni-leipzig.de>

Michael Auer is currently with the department of Electronics of the Carinthia Tech Institute, Villach, Austria. He teaches several courses on fundamentals of electronic systems.
He is chair of the yearly International Workshop "Interactive Computer aided Learning" (ICL) in Villach/Austria and a member of the PC of several international conferences and workshops. He is also a member of some international committees in the field of eLearning.
So far he has given some tutorials at international conferences and numerous lectures on current trends in eLearning.
He has written more than 90 papers in the field of electronics and new educational systems.

Sebastian Schreiter after becoming a photographer intensively dealt with typography and design issues of media independent publishing. He freelance (tele-) worked as webdesigner and IT consultant . Now he is occupied with projects in eLearning, content management and user interface design for eLearning and webapplications at adVIS GmbH, Dresden.