Eric Vyncke is a Distinguished Engineer at Cisco Systems. His main technical interests are security, policy-based networking, Internet and quality of service. He is an invited speaker for networking and security topics at the Universities of Liège and Mons and he is a professor at HEC, a business school. <evyncke@cisco.com>