

Jean-Marc Uzé has been a consultant at Juniper Networks since 2001 and his role is focused on research, education and government networks and institutions. He has a Master of Science degree in Network Engineering and started his career as head of the data processing centre of INRA, the French Agronomic Research Institute. <juze@juniper.net>