

Marija Šalovarda is a 4.th year student on department of Radiocommunications and Professional Electronic at the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing in Zagreb. As future graduate in field of electroacoustic this is her first conference project.

Marija is also secretary of AES Croatian Student Section, and together with AES student colleagues she participated in few section programs.