

BIOGRAPHY

Oliver Hip received the B.S. degree in Information Science from University of Zagreb in 1999. From September 1998, he is professor at High School in Požega. His current research interests include: Organization, Information Technology and Education.

He published several papers at International conference on Organizational Science Development in Republic Slovenia.