

BIOGRAPHY

Martina Hribar is an associate at Croatian Academic and Research Network - CARNet in Zagreb. Since 2002. she has been involved in several course development projects. Last year she has participated in project "Development and Implementation of Online Courses".

The main scope of her work is establishment of support for CARNet's online courses. The rest of her work covers support to existing online courses and participant satisfaction.

Her main interest is course design with an accent on its methodology.