

BIOGRAPHY

Damir Ivanković is database manager on Institute of oceanography and fisheries since 1999. Main tasks and projects are: development and design of MEDAS database using ORACLE forms and c++ tools, and recently application server and Java applets, development of software for automatic real-time measurement, data transfer and data visualizations using C++, ORACLE graph, and Matlab, and design and maintenance of Institutes web page (<http://www.izor.hr>).

Damir Ivanković presented paper on CUC 2000, and he is also author of numerous papers in the field of oceanographic data management, and usage of information technologies for presentation and management of real-time and oceanographic data.