BIOGRAPHY

Ivan Voras is currently a $5^{th}$-year student at the Faculty of Electrical Engineering and Computing (FER), University of Zagreb. He was born in 1981 in Slavonski Brod, Croatia. There, he attended high-school Matija Mesić, biased course for science and mathematics.

During high-school he participated in numerous extra-curriculum activities, some of which resulted in prizes and recognitions on national level.

In Y2K he became student of FER where he joined the nascent web development team and shortly after that became the team's lead programmer.

The team worked on and created many web applications, mainly for the FER and Croatian Academic and Research Network (CARNet). He's also an active member of several Open-source projects, mainly concerning the FreeBSD operating system.
