BIOGRAPHY

Josip Zimet - After he finished faculty of Electrical engineering in Zagreb, department telecommunication, he started to work in Croatian Post and Telecomm where participated in project of informatization of direction of telecommunication. In December 1998. he started to work in Cisco Systems in Brussels-Belgium as customer support engineer in Cisco TAC covering LAN, desktop protocols and ATM technologies. In March 2000. he moved to Cisco Systems in Zagreb working as presales system engineer covering small, medium, enterprise, service provider and mobile type of customers.